The petitioner appears to be very eligible for some assistance being extended to him. He is the sole few keeping alive in this age some knowledge of the sacrificial aspect of the Hindu religion and it would be a pity to allow such knowledge to die out altogether. A small allowance of Rs 5 a month maybe paid from the Hasan or Grama charities for a period of 5 years. The Bishe charities has also savings which may be utilized for the purpose. If approved the petition returned to Govt. with the enclosures

Sir.

May you will kindly take the following few lines into kind consideration upon favourable action

I belong to a respected ancient family of Agnihotris and Pandits. The Agnihotra ceremonies in my family, three times in the day, are performed by me myself besides the Agnihotra Mahayajna charana, Rudrabhisheka Lakshatamishka other Yaga. My grandfather Rameshwara Sastry was in receipt of a salary of thirty Rupees per month for keeping the Agni Hotra burning Sakes and for imparting instructions & lessons. His allowance has been continued and only one Rupee per month is Falamed programme as of your in the present high prices it is impossible to make both ends meet. I am also continuing the imparting of religious education.

I hope therefore you will revise the old stipend and enable me to maintain the Agnihotra
